INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF TEAMSTERS LOCAL UNION NO. 773

ORDER¹

Pratt Industries, Inc.'s petition to revoke subpoenas duces tecum B-664609 and Pratt Corrugated Logistics, LLC's petition to revoke subpoena duces tecum B-664610 are denied. The subpoenas seek information relevant to the matters under investigation and describe with sufficient particularity the evidence sought, as required by Section 11(1) of the Act and Section 102.31(b) of the Board's Rules and Regulations. Further, the Petitioners have failed to establish any other legal basis for revoking the subpoenas.² See generally NLRB v. North Bay Plumbing, Inc., 102 F.3d 1005 (9th Cir.

¹ The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

² In denying Pratt Industries' petition to revoke subpoena duces tecum B-664609, we consider the subpoena as modified by the Region's limitations on Paragraph 3 of the subpoena, as stated in its opposition to the petitions to revoke the subpoenas duces tecum.

To the extent that Pratt Corrugated Logistics has provided some of the material requested by subpoena duces tecum B-664610, it is not required to produce that information again, provided that it accurately describes which documents under subpoena it has already provided, states whether those previously supplied documents constitute all of the requested documents, and provides all of the information that was subpoenaed.
